

AAFA Spring Meeting 2017

David Hakenwerth presiding

President David Hakenwerth called the meeting to order at 9:03 am.

David Hakenwerth read the fall meeting minutes and asked for any revisions or discussions, no changes. Robert Nash made a motion to approve the minutes, Doug Walton second the motion. Motion carried

Dawn Hefley presented the current AAFA financial statement.

Old Business:

None

New Business:

David Hakenwerth made a statement about the cost of conferences and does not want to see AAFA financials fall below $25,000 by year end. He suggested soliciting more business from sponsors and growing this list for funding.

CAPPA conference is in St. Louis this year on September 17-19, 2017

AAFA fall conference is scheduled November 1-3, 2017

David Hakenwerth started a conversation about AAFA scholarships. Rodney Hughes made a motion to give two $500 scholarships. Christine Bryant second to motion. Motion carried.

Ian Hadden shared CAPPA news, CAPPA will continue to provide funding to members for the CFP/EFP certifications. Ian Hadden suggested hosting a supervisor tool kit to members.

Robert Nash provided the 2018 spring conference dates, they will be March 28-29, 2018. Golf tournament will be held at Mystic Creek golf course in El Dorado, AR.

David Hakenwerth closed the meeting at 9:33 am.